THURSDAY, MAY 2, 2024

10:30 - 11:00 PRESENTATION OF THE PARTICIPANTS

Nicole KLEIN, Prefect (h), Secretary general of the EASTR, France

68 rue Hallé

75014 PARIS

E-mail: nicole.klein75014@gmail.com

Born on February 29, 1952 in Boulogne-sur-Seine.

3 children

Education: bachelor's degree in literature, graduate of Sciences Po Paris, master's degree in information sciences (Simmons University in Boston, Massachusetts); ENA – National school of administration (Fernand Braudel graduation, 1987)

Distinctions: officer of the Legion of Honor; Commander of the National Order of Merit; officer of Arts and Letters; Knight of the Academic Palms.

I began my career as a documentalist at the general secretariat of the government in 1976. I joined the ENA and chose, after graduation, the prefectural body. In the 1990s, I was chief of cabinet of the Minister of Communication, Catherine Tasca, then project manager for the renewal of the public service in the office of the Prime Minister, Michel Rocard. I was then seconded to the World Bank as a specialist in governance issues from 1993 to 1995. I became secretary general of the Loire-Atlantique prefecture in 2000-2001 then as delegated prefect for equal opportunities to the prefect of the Nord-Pas-de-Calais region before being appointed prefect in Hautes-Alpes between 2008 and 2009. I then alternated functions in Paris or in the region. First a forerunner of the Aquitaine regional health agency, I became its general director. From 2012 to 2014, I was prefect of Seine-et-Marne. In July 2014, I was appointed prefect of the Somme department and the Picardie region, then, in January 2016, of Seine-Maritime and the Normandy region. I returned to Loire-Atlantique, from the beginning of March 2017 until October 2018, as prefect of the Loire-Atlantique department and the Pays de la Loire region where I had to manage the difficult Notre-Dame-des-Landes case. From November 2018 to July 10, 2019, I was director of the cabinet of the Minister of State, Minister of ecological and inclusive transition.

Today, I provide training on administrative culture and crisis management and communication at the IPAG of the Nanterre University for the Prépa Talents and at Sciences Po Paris in Master 2 Public Affairs. Since October 2023, I have also been an Associated Justice at the National Court of Asylum.

FRIDAY MAY 3, 2024
14:00 – 15:15 ROUND TABLE IV

Moderator: Mrs. Anne AZAM-PRADEILLES, Honorary civil administrator, international expert in public administration reform, France

Anne AZAM-PRADEILLES is a former alumna of the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA now INSP) (1996) and the Ecole Normale Supérieure of Cachan, agrégée in English, with a career first in the university (Paris V 1975-1992) then as a senior civil servant in the Ministry of the Interior (1996-2012), finally as a consultant in public administration since 2012. She ended her career as a senior civil servant as project director with the Secretary General of the Ministry of the Interior, in charge of international cooperation in matters of administrative and territorial governance.

Elected several times to the board of directors of the ACPHFMI, she was responsible for international cooperation. She has been part of AERTE since the early 2000s and actively participated in the creation of APREF. Having worked on NATO during a defence seminar at ENA in 1995, with assignments in Washington (including the Pentagon and Congress) and London, she was admitted as an auditor at the Institute for Higher Studies of National Defence (IHEDN) (Bordeaux 1998 131st session).

From 1996, as civil administrator of the Ministry of Interior, she was seconded as sub-prefect in a mountain touristic district, then worked in central administration with the High Civil Servant for Defence (HFD) then as Advisor to the Delegate for Regional Planning and Regional Action (DATAR) for public services and State reform. Between 2002 and 2008, she was seconded to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs: on the EU Institution Building programme, as pre-accession advisor for the PHARE twinning with the Ministry of Finance of Latvia for regional development, at the Ministry of administration and interior of Romania for financial and fiscal decentralisation, and, bilaterally, as adviser to the director general of the civil service and to the president of the National Academy of Public Administration of Ukraine.

From 2008 to 2012, as project director for international cooperation, she initiated or strengthened numerous cooperations with EU Member States, candidate countries and European Neighbourhood Policy (East and South), in particular Romania and Morocco, major emerging countries and less advanced countries, in Africa, Asia and Latin America. In 2013 she was EU Twinning resident adviser for regional policy in Moldova, seconded by the operator of the Ministry of the Interior, CIVIPOL.

From 2014, as a consultant in public administration reform (PAR), Anne AZAM-PRADEILLES carried out many missions, often as team leader (TL). In Niger, she drafted the National State Modernisation Policy Action Plan. In Morocco, for the Ministry of Civil Service and Administrative Reform, she contributed to the study on deconcentration. In 2015 she wrote an EU twinning fiche on the civil service in Azerbaijan. Since 2015 she has carried out numerous missions in Haiti on the EU State Building Contract Program (SBC 1 then SBC 2) with the Primature (OMRH): first 5 ministries organisational audits: economy and finance, planning and external cooperation, interior and local authorities, transport, public works and communications, and the food and nutritional security theme, then the operationalisation of the State Modernisation Program (PME-2023) and the evaluation of that same program in 2023. In 2016-17, she participated in the EU PAPSE Environment Program in Algeria on performance auditing then consolidation of the internal audit unit. In 2017-2018 she was key expert for the EU HAKAMA project (governance) in Morocco (deconcentration / decentralisation, quality of public services, e-administration). In 2018-2020, she was TL of the EU Functional Reviews project in Tunisia at the Presidency of the Government. Between 2019 and 2022, she was TL in Kosovo on the monitoring of indicators for EU budget support. And in parallel, senior expert in Albania on the same subject. In 2021, she was TL on a study on civil service for the Agence Française de Développement (AFD) and on an EU project aimed at improving the management of European aid by the Project Management Units (UGP) in Tunisia. Between 2016 and 2024, she carried out several missions in Albania, first on an EU twinning of Capacity building of the civil service implemented by the French ENA with ASPA, then on the first EU ENA "Young Cells" project for training of 15 civil servants and today on the 2nd project (25 civil servants). Currently a PAR technical adviser to the AFD Poto mitan Program in Haïti until 2027.

Anne AZAM-PRADEILLES's mother tongue is French and she is bilingual in English. She has a professional level in Spanish and notions of Romanian and German. She has published articles on public administration and is on the editorial board of the journal "Administration" of the French Association of the prefectural corps. Since 1996 she has made many missions for the ENA / INSP. She is a Knight of the Legion of Honour, of the National Order of Merit and of the Academic Palms.

Professor Cathy Berx studied Law at the University of Antwerp, where she received her Master of Laws degree summa cum laude in 1993. As a researcher at the Fund for Scientific Research Flanders, she obtained in 1998 her Ph.D. in public law entitled: 'Legal protection from the citizens against the government'. In this specific domain, she published several prize-winning books. She has been working as a professor at the University of Antwerp from 2000 onwards, teaching the following courses: 'Law of the decentralized governances' (2nd Ma) and 'Juridical skills Debating Class' (1st Ba).

From 2001 until 2007 she was vice-chairman of the Social Service Department in the city of Antwerp. In the period between 2003 until 2008, she was vice-chairman of the Christian Democratic Party. She joined the Flemish Parliament in 2004 until April 2008. Cathy Berx was a top staff member of former Minister-President and Prime Minister Yves Leterme. In that function, she was closely involved with the formation of the Flemish government (2004-2009), as well as with the negotiations in order to form a new federal government at the end of 2007 (Leterme I). From 2007 until 2008 she was a member of the Antwerp City Council.

In May 2008, Cathy Berx was appointed as governor of the province of Antwerp. As governor, she is the representative or 'commissioner' of the Federal and the Flemish Government in the province of Antwerp. She also presides over the Permanent Deputation. As commissioner of the Flemish Government, she is amongst other things responsible for the administrative supervision and coaching of the local authorities and social assistance councils (OCMWs) in the province. As commissioner of the Federal Government, the governor fulfills amongst other things tasks concerning the maintenance of public order and security, as well as the prevention and combating of large-scale disasters through the coordination of the various emergency services (fire brigade, police forces, medical services, logistics and communication). In general, the governor fulfills an arbitrating, coordinating, unifying and facilitating role. Cathy Berx carries out various representative tasks as well, and she takes care of the reception of members of the royal family as well as of international guests and delegations. Regularly, she represents the Antwerp province at home and abroad.

Furthermore, Cathy Berx is chairman the General Board of the Institute of Tropical Medicine Antwerp (ITG) and of the Management Committee of Fonds BELVUE, as well as of the Flemish Road Safety Forum. She is a member of the board of trustees of e.g. HETPALEIS, Monty Kulturfaktorij, the Foundation of the Conservatorium, Campus Vesta, the High Council of the University of Antwerp, the Consultatory Commission for the award of Noble Favors, ...

During recent years, she published books and papers on a wide range of (policy) topics and participated in the Bilderberg Conference 2018 and Summer Davos of the World Economic Forum in Tianjin (China) in 2018.
